

The Map To High Performance

A 1-day Culture Creation Workshop

This one-day workshop is designed to guide leaders to link culture to the business strategy. By the end of the day, you will walk away with a road map of the actions to take, mindsets to reframe, and experiences to create in your organisation to bring your values to life.

The workshop will include:

Part 1 : Drivers Of Change

- The changes currently happening in the marketplace
- The response your organisation desires to have in the marketplace
- Determining the culture is necessary for your organization to deliver the desired response

Part 2 : Aligning Culture To Business

- Strategy to align the actions, mindsets and experiences to create the desired culture
- Action planning to identify the forward action for the organisation and culture

Who is this for : Leadership teams and Transformation Drivers of companies that are embarking on a culture change programme. This workshop can be customised to your company's specific requirements.

You will be working directly with our Lead Consultants, Janet Lee and Sonny Lim, who have a wealth of experience in activating drive, ownership and accountability in people and organisations.
